

Admissions and Finances

If you are a high school senior or graduate, a college student, or beyond college-age and think you might like to attend Principia College, this section tells you how to apply. Applicants must be practicing Christian Scientists, as demonstrated through reliance on Christian Science for healing and through regular attendance in a Christian Science Church or Sunday School.