

Parental Notification

Principia reserves the right to contact parents as it deems appropriate in disciplinary situations and in health-related challenges. When a case is forwarded to Formal Discipline, the charged student(s) will be encouraged to inform their parents of the possible impending disciplinary consequences.